ASSEMBLY NEWS

So, what's happening with the Same-Sex Marriage Decision from Assembly and how will it impact Mount Louisa?

- Presbyteries across Australia have been discussing as to whether to challenge the decision of Assembly to write an alternate Same Sex Marriage Liturgy and approve it alongside the traditional Marriage Liturgy. We are still waiting to hear if there are enough Presbyteries/Synods prepared to challenge this ruling.
- In the meantime, North Queensland Presbytery has voted to remain traditional only and reject the alternate liturgy. David has signed a statement saying he rejects the Assembly decision and will NOT conduct same sex marriages. The Church Council has voted to not allow Same Sex Marriages on our property.
- At our last Presbytery, we voted to challenge the Assembly's authority for making the Same Sex Marriage decision and to request that they justify the decision from the Basis of Union. We have heard replies so far.
- The ACC is looking at the possibility of becoming an alternate Assembly for dissenting Presbyteries to relate to. Another alternative would be dissenting non-geographic presbyteries.

There is a lot of work happening on these issues in the background. Please continue to watch and pray with us that God will be glorified in the outcomes and His Word honoured as truth.
